

27.03.2014

“Junior Archaeologist’s” School of “Erebuni” Historical & Archaeological Museum-Reserve invites the schoolchildren of middle ages to take part in the spring school launching on April 22, 2014.

The studying program consists of theoretical and practical trainings. Theoretical classes will last two weeks in periodicity of tree days in a week. Practical classes will last two weeks and be held in a training site in the vicinity of the museum.

The studies aim at encouraging the youth interested in the archaeology and contributing the valorization of the archaeological heritage by spreading archaeological knowledge.

Application deadline is April 19, 2014. Application format is given in the museum, in the Department of Public Relations and Valorization. The blank includes first and second names, educational institution, permanent residence, address and phone number.

Application can be filed at Yerevan 0020, Erebuni str. 38, or mailed to miq.badalyan@gmail.com

For the details call 43-89-53: Department of Public Relations and Valorization or 093-20-05-51: Badalyan Mikayel